Purpose of this Policy

Colorado State University respects the rights of its students and is committed to protecting the privacy of their Education Records. The University complies with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. §1232g) and regulations (34 C.F.R. Part 99). This policy describes the student's rights and responsibilities with respect to the privacy of Education Records and the methods by which FERPA privacy requirements are to be observed.

Application of this Policy
This policy applies to the Education Records of Colorado State University students who are currently enrolled, or who were formerly enrolled, regardless of their age or status with regard to parental dependency, including records related to the student's application for admission. At CSU, a student is considered to be currently enrolled and covered under FERPA on the first day of classes of the student's first term of enrollment. This can be done by remitting an enrollment deposit or receiving a deposit waiver, completing an enrollment request form, or registering for classes. FERPA does not apply to records of applicants for admission who are denied acceptance or, if accepted, do not attend the institution when the student confirms his or her decision to attend the University. This can be done by remitting an enrollment deposit (including those students receiving waivers for such) or receiving a deposit waiver, completing an enrollment request form, or registering for classes.

EXEMPTIONS FROM THIS POLICY

Additionally, to increase efficiency for students and parents requesting certain education records, such as transcripts, billing information and course schedules, the University developed an online portal providing convenient access to such records. The University also recognizes parents may, from time to time, have requests for other protected information regarding students that it may, but is not required to provide. The University wishes to have those requests reviewed by a central source to efficiently determine what information may, and should, be shared with a qualified parent.

Nothing in this policy shall supersedes the requirements of FERPA. This policy is subject to change whenever required to maintain compliance with applicable laws or regulations.
POLICY PROVISIONS

Student Rights and Responsibilities Regarding their Education Records

A student’s rights regarding their Education Records include:

Under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (hereafter called FERPA), a student’s rights include:

   a. The right to inspect and review the student’s Education Records within 45 days of the day the University receives a request for access.

   b. The right to request amendment of the student’s Education Records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading and a right to place with the Education Record a statement about the contents of the record. If the University decides not to amend the records as requested, the student will be notified of this decision and advised of the right to a hearing. Additional information about the hearing procedures will accompany the notification.

   c. The right to limit disclosure of personally identifiable information contained in the student’s Education Records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent, and the right to consent to disclosures that are not otherwise authorized by law.

   d. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the University to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the office that administers FERPA is: Family Policy Compliance Office, U.S. Department of Education, 400 Maryland Ave. SW, Washington, DC 20202-4605.

A student’s responsibilities include:

   a. The responsibility to read the Student Record Privacy Statement and Annual Notification under FERPA published by the CSU Registrar’s Office.

   b. The responsibility to manage any restrictions on the disclosure of Directory Information, so that these restrictions do not interfere with the student’s work or academic life by preventing disclosures intended for his or her benefit.

   c. The responsibility to manage any consent that the student has given for disclosures to be made to any other person, and to withdraw such consent, in writing (or via FramWAMweb, where applicable), when the student no longer wishes to permit such disclosures. Written withdrawal of consent must be submitted to the Registrar’s Office or Business and Financial Services for financial and billing information, in order to be effective.

Disclosure of Education Records
The following procedures apply to the disclosure of information from a student’s Education Record. Additional procedures and forms may be established by the Office of the Registrar.

1. Directory Information

Directory Information may be disclosed without notice or consent; however, students have the right to request that their Directory Information be kept confidential, in which case, the University will not disclose that information without consent, or as authorized by law.

However, students should be aware that restricting the release of Directory Information or placing a full confidential hold on their account may have unintended consequences. For example, such restriction may make it difficult for potential employers or other schools to verify enrollment, a student’s name may be excluded from the commencement program, and student organizations, fellow students and others may have difficulty locating the student through the University Directory. To avoid these issues, many students choose not to restrict the release of Directory Information.

Except as specifically required by law or by an approved University contract, the University will not create or distribute lists of personally identifiable information (PII) elements such as students’ email addresses, or students’ mailing addresses, except as necessary for official business purposes of the University, as approved by the Registrar or Dean of Students. Such lists or compilations may only be distributed to School Officials having a legitimate educational interest in the data.

2. Private Information

A student’s Private Information may be disclosed to School Officials only when there is a “legitimate educational interest” in doing so. A School Official has a legitimate educational interest if the official is performing a task that is: specified in his or her position description or contract agreement; related to a student’s education or to discipline of a student; providing a service or benefit related to the student or student’s family; or maintaining the safety and security of campus. An example would be when an academic advisor reviews the student’s record of courses completed in order to advise the student. If the School Official is a third-party contractor, volunteer or agent, the agreement with the contractor must include certain provisions protecting the Private Information from re-disclosure.

Personally identifiable information (PII) may also be disclosed to a person or party external to the University, without the student’s consent, as authorized under the FERPA regulations, 34 C.F.R. §99.31, including (but not limited to):

- To school officials who have a legitimate educational interest;
- When required pursuant to a subpoena or other court order;
- When the disclosure is to the student’s parent, and the conditions for disclosures to parents are met as set forth below;
• When the disclosure is required by law. In particular, federal law requires that the University disclose the “final results” of any institutional disciplinary proceeding dealing with an alleged crime of violence or an alleged non-forcible sex offense to the alleged victim of the offense (or the alleged victim’s next of kin, or to any person whom CSU determines to have a legitimate interest in such information). As used herein, “final results” that may be disclosed after all hearings and determinations are final under the University’s rules and policies, are: the student’s name; the violation committed under CSU’s Student Conduct Code; and any sanction imposed by the institution against the student;

• When the University determines that there is a health or safety emergency that warrants such disclosure. A health or safety emergency exists whenever there is an articulable and significant threat to the health or safety of the student or another person;

• When the disclosure is to officials of another institution of higher education where the student is enrolled, or is seeking to enroll, for purposes related to that enrollment;

• For financial aid purposes; or

• Any other exception provided under FERPA applies.

3. Disclosures to Parents and Authorized Users and Trusted Individuals

Pursuant to FERPA, the University may, but is not required, to disclose any part of the student’s Education Record to a student’s parents under certain conditions. The University primarily provides parents and trusted individuals, qualified parents, authorized users, with access to limited information through FamWeb or with specific written student consent. In those instances where a parent or any individual or entity authorized user, qualified parent requests education records, Private Information that are not available via FamWeb and the student has not provided written consent, such requests should be referred to the Dean of Students for additional review and response.

An qualified parent or trusted individual authorized user is parent is qualified to may be granted access to the student’s education record Private Information when any of the following conditions are met:

• A parent of the student has claimed the student as a dependent on the parent’s federal tax return and the parent’s identity has been verified by the Office of the Registrar, the Office of Financial Aid, Student Financial Services, the Center for Advising and Collaborative for Student Achievement (CASA), Business and Financial Services, or another authorized School Official. If one parent has claimed the student as a dependent, another the other parent of the student may also be allowed to receive such disclosures. The "Parent Affidavit and Request for Student Academic Information" form or a copy of the tax return in the Office of Financial Aid can serve as verification the parent claimed the student on the federal tax return;

- The student has authorized the disclosure in writing by providing the University entity with a signed permission to release academic records;
- The student has authorized the disclosure in writing or consented to access via FamWeb; the individual may view defined areas of the student record. Discussion with University officials in regards to details of the student record require a signed FERPA disclosure;
- There is a health or safety emergency which, in the discretion of the University, warrants disclosing the information;
- The student is under the age of 21, and the information relates to a violation of law or policy involving the use or possession of drugs or alcohol. It is CSU’s policy to notify a student’s parents in these circumstances in order to help reduce alcohol and drug use by CSU students, engage parents in dialogue about their student’s behavior related to alcohol/drugs, and assist students and the CSU community in understanding that CSU takes underage alcohol/drug use seriously; or
- The information relates to a law enforcement matter and is contained in a record made by a law enforcement authority, including, but not limited to, campus police.

4. Information Other Than Education Records

In addition, students should be aware that FERPA allows, but does not require, a School Official to share with parents information based on that official's personal knowledge or observation that is not based on an Education Record. Therefore, FERPA would neither require nor prohibit a faculty member or other School Official from sharing concerns or observations with a parent about their son or daughter based on personal knowledge or observation rather than on the Education Record. If the information is contained in any written record (other than a Sole Source Note) for such information, he or she must first confirm that the appropriate written consent form for the disclosure has been received.

5. Student’s Authorization for How to Provide Consent to a Disclosure

A student may consent to the release of any or all of his or her Private Information personally identifiable information by completing a written consent form and returning it to the Office of the Registrar or other responsible School Official. Consent may be ongoing, or may be given for a specified period of time or limited to a single instance. Forms are available from the Registrar’s Office Office of the Registrar’s website. Financial FERPA forms are available in RAMweb and must be submitted to Accounts Receivable Operations.
Students are also afforded the opportunity to consent to the release of certain Education Records and/or Private Information to the student’s parents or others be viewed by any authorized individual without the necessity of giving consent each time the disclosure is requested. This is done by registering the email address of the person to whom the disclosures will be made in RamWeb, an online access point controlled by the student. The information to be that the student designates for disclosure is made available via an online portal in “FamWeb.” The types of information that may be designated for disclosure via FamWeb are limited and do not mean School Officials may speak to the parent or trusted authorized individual about the Private Information education record. Consent to release private information personally identifiable information not accessible through FamWeb requires a separate, written release form signed by the student.

6. Financial Aid Information

Information from a student’s application for need-based financial aid (including parental income) and the status of that application will be released only to a parent whose income information is included on the application (e.g., the Free Application for Federal Financial Aid, or FAFSA, application form).

7. CSU ID Number

CSU ID numbers may be shared as identifiers with service providers contracted with the University service providers as deemed necessary to correctly identify a student in the service provider’s system.

8. Medical Treatment Records

Medical treatment records may only be disclosed with the student’s written consent, when required by court order or subpoena, or as otherwise permitted under one of the exceptions for disclosure of personally identifiable information private information described in FERPA laws and authoritative guidance and this policy. When a medical treatment record is disclosed in accordance with this policy, it becomes an “Education Record” under FERPA and this policy. Disclosures must be limited to only such portions of the medical record that are relevant and necessary to the litigation or other matter for which disclosure is authorized.

Responsibilities of CSU Faculty and Staff

Faculty, staff and agents of CSU who have access to student Education Records are responsible to for:

- Understanding the requirements of FERPA and this policy;
- Annually, or at more frequent intervals, reaffirming statements of acceptable use in accessing University administrative systems and student Education Records.
• Protecting the confidentiality of student Education Records as required by this Policy;
• Accessing student Education Records only when they have a legitimate educational interest for doing so; and
• Authenticating the identity of those requesting student Education Record information and confirm their right to access prior to release of information. For assistance with authentication procedures, University employees should contact the Office of the Registrar.

All CSU employees and units with access to Private-personally identifiable Information shall take all reasonable measures to assure the security and confidentiality of such records.

Special Responsibilities of the Registrar’s Office Office of the Registrar

The Registrar’s Office Office of the Registrar is responsible for disseminating the Student Record Privacy Statement and Annual Notification under FERPA, for obtaining written consent and authorization to release a student’s records, and for facilitating authorized disclosures.

The Registrar’s Office Office of the Registrar will inform parties to whom personally identifiable information is released that recipients are not permitted to disclose the information to others without the written consent of the student (unless the disclosure is required or permitted by law without the student’s consent).

The Registrar’s Office Office of the Registrar will periodically review FERPA policies and procedures with the assistance of the Office of the General Counsel and the Office of Policy & Compliance.

Concerns, complaints, questions or suggestions regarding the release of student records should be addressed to the Registrar’s Office Office of the Registrar.

COMPLIANCE WITH THIS POLICY

Failure to comply by University employees and agents may result in disciplinary action in accordance with applicable University policies. Assistance with compliance is provided by the Registrar’s Office Office of the Registrar.
